

BAROLO DOCG 2011

This Barolo is made of grapes from three different vineyards located in La Morra. Garnet red in colour, it takes a concentration of flavours with spicy notes of cinnamon and chocolate, rose and red berries, blackberries and blueberries.

Dry and warm, smooth and powerful in the mouth, it develops in a balmy finish.

Variety: Nebbiolo

Oenologist: Sergio Molino

Annual Production: 8000 bottles

Density/hectar: 2,5 hectars

Exposure: South West

Yield per hectar: 55 quintals

Altitude: 300 m

Terrain: clayey-calcareous

Wine making: residence of the must for about 8-10 days

Ageing: the wine ages for 20-24 months in cask of 25 hl capacity

Tasting notes: garnet red in colour, it takes a concentration of flavours with spicy notes of cinnamon and chocolate, rose and red berries, blackberries and blueberries. Dry and warm, smooth and powerful in the mouth, it develops in a balmy finish

Gastronomic combinations: ideal for red meat and game dishes, seasoned cheeses, classic pasta dishes

Alcohol: 14%